

Spring Semester 2019 (February - June)
External Lecturer (m/f)
"Principles of Business Law"

Study Program: All Undergraduate Programs
Course Type: Lecture/Seminar (LS)
Hours: 6 weekly units (45min each) in a 15 week semester, comprising of 2h lecture and 2x2h seminar

Course Objectives: This course is designed as an introduction to different fields of law as they relate to business. The aim of this course is to provide an introduction to basic principles of business law in areas such as contracts, warranty and consumer protection issues as well as tourism law, competition, corporate and intellectual property law.

Course content includes, but is not limited to:

- Find legal rules and apply them to contracts (including General Terms of Business)
- Apply warranty claims and claims under consumer protection rules
- Distinguish between the most relevant contractual clauses (standard contract terms) and use (and understand) them when negotiating and drafting contracts
- Relate the basics of dispute resolution from the viewpoint of a business to relevant cases
- Explain the legal framework when setting up and running an enterprise (corporate law, trademarks, unfair competition, etc.)
- Describe the organization of an enterprise in order to comply with rules of law (in particular competition law)

Requirements

- Master or diploma degree in the field of social sciences and/or business administration from an accredited post-secondary educational institution
- Excellent written and spoken English (IELTS Score of 7.0 or equivalent - German is not a requirement as English is the working language)
- A proven track record of teaching this or similar subjects at an accredited post-secondary educational institution
-

MODUL University requires successful candidates to

- Contribute to the ongoing development of the course by means of quality management tools.
- Apply innovative pedagogical methods in the classroom to facilitate learning for students with diverse backgrounds.
- Transport the university's values of education into the classroom.

Remuneration for this position lays at €111 per unit before tax. Additional information on the study programs can be found online. For questions related to this position, please contact the Dean of the Undergraduate School, Dr. Florian Aubke (florian.aubke@modul.ac.at).

Please send your application including cover letter and curriculum vitae to Mr. Eben Nel at jobs@modul.ac.at (in English, preferably as a single PDF file not exceeding 8 MB).

MODUL University Vienna is an international private university owned by the Vienna Chamber of Commerce and Industry, the largest provider of private education in Austria. The university campus is located on Kahlenberg, a scenic hill with a spectacular view of the capital of Austria.

Since 2007, MODUL University Vienna has been offering cutting-edge education (BBA, BSc, MSc, MBA and PhD study programs) in the areas of international management, new media technology, public governance, sustainable development, and tourism and hospitality management.

We offer

-  Professional work environment
-  International team
-  Training opportunities

